She left the hotel because she wanted to go to a picturesque place—the Navesink Highlands—where there were trees. She had no quarrel with the bathing master and no quarrel with Mr. Hildreth, of the West End hotel. She left because she wanted to go to a quieter place. "Did it seem," she asked, "much like madness when I hired a carriage to drive twelve miles through the deep mud and left my own horses in the stable?" When she returned to the hotel she found Mr. Emmons packing her dresses. "Now, I never saw a man," she observed, "who could pack his own very well; but he was attempting to pack mine." Mrs. Emmons ended her day's testimony with a jest. She said Mr. Kent had made a mistake in referring to her friend as Miss Proudfoot. Her name was Hartshorn.

THE ASSIGNMENT WAS IRREGULAR.—The case of Fisher, assignee, agt. McMichael, decided in the Circuit Court a few days ago by a verdict for defendant, has some interest. It appears that in January, 1883. Harris Brothers sued out an attachment against the stock of O. Damann, and the goods were taken. Damann moved then to quash the attachment, and it was granted, and Harris Brothers obtained judgment. Damann then undertook to make an assignment to Fisher, but, notwithstanding the marshal levied on the property and sold it, Fisher then brought suit against the marshal for $5,000. Latest Telegrams to The Star. GLADSTONE QUITE ILL.

His Condition Such as to Cause Apprehension in England. Special Cable Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR. LONDON, Jan. 15 .- I learn at a late hour to-night that Gladstone's health is much worse than is generally known. He has a severe cold, complicated by diarrhœa. The family hope his wonderful recuperative powers will soon cause him to improve, but the fact is at this moment he is much lower than at any time for several years. Wilson's Brain was Not Sound.

Wilson's Brain was Not Sound.

Norkistown, Pa., Jan. 15.—The brain of John M. Wilson, who was hanged on Thursday for the murder of Anthony Dealy, was examined yesterday at the insane hospital by Dr. R. H. Chase, assisted by several local physicians, and was found to be abnormally developed in parts and atrophied in others, caused by water on the brain. A microscopic examination will be made. Physicians believe Wilson was not of sound mind. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. New York Stock Market.
